

Hearing set September 22 on proposed rules for Campus Use

A public hearing is set for 4 p.m. September 22 about General Administration's proposed rules regarding activities on the Capitol Campus.

The hearing is in the auditorium of the General Administration Building, 210 11th Ave. SW.

Directions and parking information is available at:

General Administration adopted an interim policy for displays and exhibits in August because of the uncertainty of the date that the new rule would become effective, and to provide clarity and consistency to the permitting process pending final adoption of the rule. The interim policy prohibits private displays and exhibits in the public areas of any public buildings on the Capitol Campus.

The public comment period for the draft rule began September 2.
